Pending the suit, in February, 1878, Taybr sold and conveyed to his attorney, Terry, who was managing the suit for him, a house and lot in Eikton, and two tracts of land, one containing twenty-two and the other of a constitutional repugnance, which it is

Summers then instituted this action, on the 10th of September, 1878, against Taylor, Terry, Garrard, and Bailey, and several others, whose names need not be mentioned, as the judgment as to them will not be disturbed, alleging that Taylor had sold and conveyed all his property to his attorney,

Terry, in contemplation of the judgment named being reddered against him, and with the intent to delay, hinder, and defraud the plaintiff in the collection of his debt, after judgment should be rendered on it; and the Terry was not an innocent purchaser for veluable consideration, but that when he bought and accepted the conveyance for the lands named, he had notice of the fraudulent intent of his grantor, Taylor, in whose fraudulent purpose he participated and aided.

We know a lady whose missionary work in Burmah has attracted the attention of English-speaking people, who could not eat rice. Once when she was visiting in England, hostess, thinking the aversion a mere whim, put a table-spoonful of rice in the soup. Though the soup was strained before being served, and not a grain of rice was to be seen in it, yet the moment the lady tasted it she exclaimed, "Oh, there's rice in this soup!" and was obliged to leave the table.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.

Bad Breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; pervous, easily startled; feet cold or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and, although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged. Manufactured by The Dr. Harter Medicine Co., St. Louis.

The following is one of the very many testimonials we are receiving sally:

Gentlemen:—Some three nonths ago I began the use of Dur. Harter's Iron Tonic, upon the advice of many friends who knew its virtues. I was suffering from general debility to such an extent that my labor was exceedingly burdensome to me. A vacation of a month did not give me much relief, but on the contrary, was followed by increased prostration and sinking chills. At this type I began the use of your Iron Tonic, from which I realized almost immediate and wonderful results. The old energy returned and I found that my natural force was not permanently abated. I have done twice the labor that I ever did in the same time during my illness, and with double the ease. With the tranquil nerve and vigor of body, has come also a clearness of thought never before enjoyed. If the Tonic has not done the work, I know not what. I give it the credit.

Most gratefully yours,

Troy, O., Jan. 2, 1878. Pastor Christian Church.
